

Long In The Tooth - Dave Whitcher Saga

Lyrics & Music ©2022 Dave Whitcher

Inside this classroom, inside my mind,
In company with, those of my kind.
Things that they lose, Things that I find,
Things that they do, Things I decline

I drink the water, from the fountain of youth,
I am not innocent, long in the tooth,
My physical being, far past its prime
Synaptic connections, on borrowed time

I flow through these halls, in the current of youth
Pay no attention, I am just passing through
I am not a ghost, nor am I cursed
I follow no script, I am unrehearsed

Inside this classroom, inside my mind,
In company with those of my kind.
I drink the water from the fountain of youth,
I am not innocent, long in the tooth.
